4. [REDACTED] - JMM) Briefed Ed Braswell, Chief of Staff of the Senate Armed Services Committee, on recent developments regarding SA-3 deployment in Egypt, TU-95 flights to Cuba, Soviet OB in the Far East, and status of Foxbat.

Braswell said it would be helpful if Senator Stennis could have, for use in the floor debate, unclassified facts and figures regarding major Soviet weapons programs, i.e., missiles, aircraft, submarines. I pointed out our difficulties in providing unclassified material, but Braswell said "we never can get anything we want out of the Pentagon" and he would appreciate our giving it a try.

In response to Braswell's questions, I generally described the current military situation in Cambodia. Braswell said he had misplaced the maps we had provided him some time ago and would very much like a new set, including several duplicates of Vietnam, Laos, and Cambodia he could mark up to use in briefing Senator Stennis, who is having difficulty keeping on top of the Southeast Asia situation in addition to his other responsibilities. Braswell privately expressed concern that Stennis had, on the basis of Pentagon briefings, been lulled into false optimism regarding the Cambodian situation and might "get out on a limb" in his public statements.

4. (Unclassified - GLC) Mr. Major McGee, Administrative Assistant to Representative John L. McMillan (D., S.C.), called and asked how he might reach [REDACTED] who supposedly is an Agency employee. After checking with the Office of Personnel and the Office of Security, I advised McGee that we had no record of such an individual. McGee said that a [REDACTED] from Charleston, S. C., who was in his office, had been beaten and robbed and was trying to contact his brother [REDACTED] who supposedly has worked for the Agency for about six years. After checking again I told McGee that we were unable to find any record of the man in question and asked McGee if he would try to verify his information. McGee thanked us for our efforts.
